

James F. Kvitkovich

James F. Kvitkovich is a Vice President at John T. Boyd Company, a mining and geological consulting firm headquartered in Southpointe, Canonsburg, PA. His 28 years with company have primarily related to evaluation of underground coal mining operations with focus on mine feasibility studies, economic analysis of mining operations and operational assessments. Other consulting work has involved ventilation analysis, fuel supply studies, and asset appraisals. Foreign consulting assignments have included Pakistan, China, Turkey, Canada, Mexico, Russia, Bulgaria and United Kingdom. His previous industrial work experience included six years at a central Pennsylvania coal mining operation.

He received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Mining Engineering from the University of Pittsburgh in 1981 and is a registered professional engineer in Pennsylvania and an SME Registered Member .

He has been an officer and Chairman of the Pittsburgh Section of the Society for Mining, Metallurgy and Exploration, and a Board Member since 2002.