

Biosketch

John N. Murphy

John N. Murphy serves as Research Professor, Department of Chemical and Petroleum Engineering and Executive Director-McGowan Institute for Regenerative Medicine-University of Pittsburgh. Professor Murphy served as the Research Director of the Pittsburgh Research Center of the U.S. Bureau of Mines from 1978 until 1997.

Professor Murphy is a Registered Professional Engineer. He holds an undergraduate degree from the University of Pittsburgh and a master's degree from Duquesne University. He holds two patents and has authored more than 90 technical publications. He is the recipient of the Department of Interior Distinguished Service Award (1985) and the Presidential Rank Award for Meritorious Executive (1986) and Presidential Award for Distinguished Executive (1993).